W. W. DIMOND.

If the Jewel stove had not met with popular favor in Honolulu, we would not have ordered the second time. Since we opened business in our present quarters, less than fourteen months ago, we have sold 400 Jewel stoves. By the W. H. Dimond which arrived on Thursday, we received 120 of different sizes. It constitutes one car load direct from the factory; another lot will be here in a week.

This is without exception, the greatest fuel saver that has ever been imported to the Islands. The JEWEL is made on the best stove principles and saves money to the purchaser. They are low in price and made to wear-- every piece of the stove may be duplicated and in this way it will last forever. It is cheaper to buy a single casting than a whole stove.

We sell them for cash, allowing 5 per cent. discount.
We also sell them, as before, on the contract system, the purchaser paying one-third in cash, the balance in five equal monthly payments.

Dr. W. W. Dimond.

TWO CLUBS DRAWING

CLUB NO. 3 NEARLY
FULL.

This is the result of only three weeks' work. Could anything be more convincing of its popularity.

What are the reasons of this popularity?
First and foremost is the fact that we guarantee every article we select to be your money's worth in full.

We guarantee the watches to be of a certain weight or above, and we cover the movement with our "money back" guarantee, if not in every way satisfactory to you, or we will give you the range of our show cases to select from, anything you may desire, and the cost to you is only

$1

a week, until the article is paid for.

The dollar which slips through the bottom of your pocket every week, without anything to show for it, is the dollar we are after; guaranteeing a safer investment than any other scheme that may be devised. There is nothing complicated about it; nothing which needs an explanation.
There should be no cobwebs impossible to see through, because some one interested said so and so. All that we ask is that you pay the One Dollar each week and we guarantee to deliver to you an article which will be to your lasting satisfaction.

LAWYERS IN KONA

Ho Chung See Tells What
He Sees.

Burros Sound the Notes of Spring.
Timely Comments-Suggestions.

KAILUA COURT HOUSE, N. Kona, Hawaii, April 7.—Bernardin de St.
Pierre in his sweet story of Virginia makes the bloom of the coconut tree or the growth of the banana a yearly and loved monitor of the passage of life.

In this beautiful land of day dreams the Kona cottage organ in the shape of burros by regiments are to be added as an incident in the passage of life of the residents of this weird and fanciful neighborhood. The budding and blooming of spring seem to properly belong to the opening of the months here, instead of the opening of the year, as the foliage and the blossoms continually reappear from month to month during the entire year, and every month seems to have its season of quick expansion and warmth as does the season of spring time in other lands where the lakes are locked and the foliage dies once a year. Showers, when they drop at all, in this beautiful little land of memories, drop easily, as the tears flow; and the bright baldrick of heaven lends enchantment to the surface of the earth beneath, that recalls the capriciousness and the dreams of childhood.

Court opens tomorrow morning for the prosecution of business, with Judge Edward G. Hitchcock presiding and 54 cases on the docket to be disposed of.
The criminal docket is not very heavy, most of the cases being of the lighter grade of offences. The two most important cases to be tried are The Republic of Hawaii vs. Iana, who is charged with murder in the first degree, and was committed by the district magistrate from South Kona. The case, however, may be reduced to a lesser offence before the trial is opened.
The next important case is The Republic of Hawaii vs. W. J. Gallagher, charged with rape on a Japanese woman from the Pahala plantation. Col. G.
F. Little has been retained to prosecute the case. Messrs. Hitchcock & Wise and Paul Neumann are retained for the defence, and a lively fight is anticipated.

The attorneys so far present are Hon. D. H. Hitchcock and Col. G. F.
Little from Hilo; Senator Holstein from Kohala, A. S. Humphreys, W. L.
Stanley and J. K. Kaula from Honolulu. The Government is represented by the Deputy Attorney General.

Deputy Sheriff J. K. Nahale has everything in first-class trim for the court when it convenes. Sheriff L. A.
Andrews put in an appearance today to superintend things generally.

I might here remark that it would be a very good thing if the Government would purchase the house now occupied as a court house in Kailua, as it is one of the most convenient, coolest and best appointed court rooms on the island of Hawaii. The business of the courts of Hawaii, as elsewhere, must be conducted promptly and economically, and the witnesses and litigants ought to have a respectable place for the transacting of the legitimate business that from time to time comes before the court for hearing.

And that again reminds us of the necessity to have a better system of interpreters. There should be a Japanese interpreter of character and ability on each island. To be compelled to trust to the going and coming of any one interpreter for the whole Republic is worse than nonsense. There are many able Japanese scholars in the Republic whose services could be secured, and who can both read and write the language, and the island of Hawaii and its business is of sufficient importance and sufficiently large to justify the Government in allowing an interpreter for Hawaii. The necessity for this is more apparent every term of court held on this island, and it is to be hoped that the Legislature will take steps, if no one else does in the meantime, to change the present system at its next session.

Judge Hitchcock makes a very agreeable, painstaking, conscientious judicial officer, and has the respect and confidence of the bar and litigants all over the island.

It is rumored that the present Deputy Attorney General has resigned. It is to be hoped that his successor may be a clear-headed, vigorous, able lawyer with ripe experience, fearless and active and able to discharge the duties of the office without fear, favor or the hope of reward. There should be a Deputy Attorney General or a prosecuting attorney on the island of Hawaii alone. There is sufficient criminal business to keep one lawyer, and a good one, busy all the time. It is not the business nor the province of the kindergarten to furnish material for a competent assistant to the national Attorney General; and it is also to be hoped that the "family compact" will not be considered or figured in when the next appointment is made.

The Kona coffee fields show up well.
Men engaged in coffee planting here seem to be well satisfied with their investments.

The "Sea Breeze Hotel" improvised for the accommodation of lawyers and litigants during this term of court, and graciously managed by Dr. and Mrs.
Atcherley, is a complete success, and in view of the number of lawyers now snugly ensconced under its roof, the breezes have been increased many fold.
A south wind has been blowing a gale for several days, and the surf is exceedingly heavy along the Kona coast.

W. L. Stanley spent most of the week at Mr. Greenwell's. A. S. Humphreys is temporarily rusticated as the guest of Dr. McWayne at his splendid mountain home. Judge Hitchcock and family are located with Deputy Sheriff J. K. Nahale, and the remainder of the legal luminaries are struggling about the streets of the Kailua, seemingly in search of something lost.

The new court reporter of the Third and Fourth Circuit, who is a native born Frenchman from Dublin, Ireland, has been taking in the sights freely during the week, and is chock full of enthusiasm for the beauties and the quaint folk-lore of the place, with which he is trying to familiarize himself. He says he will soon be able to blend the brogue and the Hawaiian well together.

Later on I will report the further disposition of the cases as they are decided by the court.

Yours in haste,
HO CHUNG SEE.

Special Easter Music.

The choir of the Second Congregation of St. Andrew's Cathedral will render special music at the 9:30 o'clock service on next Sunday morning, which will be Easter day. The selections will include the anthem, "Christ, Our Passover," by Cramer; Te Deum in C by Dressler; a jubilate in G major, specially written by Wray Taylor; an anthem, "On the First Day of the Week," by Dr. Lott, and a carol, "Oh, the Golden Morning," by Le Jeune. The soloists will be: Mrs. E.
D. Tenney, Miss Kulmann Ward, Miss
May Atkinson, Mrs. G. C. Ross; Messrs.
T. May, Arthur Wall and J. W. Yarndley. In the evening at 6:30 o'clock there will also be a full choral service, the music to be sung by a choir of 35 voices. A magnificent by Sir John Goss and nunc dimittis by Munro will be rendered; also, two carols, "The World Itself Keeps Easter Day," and "Ye Happy Bells of Easter."

Kauai Riot.

Mr. Hackfeld says the statement made by this paper that "Mr. Hoper blazed away with a revolver into the midst of the Chinese" is incorrect. The proper version is as follows: "Mr.
Hoper, the bookkeeper, fired his rifle over the heads of the Chinese, while H. Wolters, a luna on the plantation, used his revolver in self-defense by firing two shots against a Chinaman, who was swinging an axe against him. One of the shots hit the Chinaman."

New Departure.

It seems that Caterer Chapman has quite a scheme on hand. This consists in getting up little stag picnics to various places outside of the city and charging a certain sum for tickets of admission to the same. One of these affairs was given at Camarinos' ranch in Puuhale Sunday. About 60 young men turned out, and a fine time was the result. Another will be given in the near future.
